

Jafa Craft Brewing Pte. (Singapore) is launching a new brand of Craft Beer for the S.E Asian Market. The initial launch will be in South Korea, followed by other South East Asian countries in the next few years.

The aim of the company is to develop a line of beer that is true to the craft – source locally, manufacture locally and in limited quantity.

To join us in our new project we are looking for an experienced and passionate candidate to become an integral part of the team, drive the brewery operations, and become a part of the Company's growth story; someone who looks for stability and long term growth.

This job will also provide the opportunity to work & live in different countries, and it goes without saying that the candidate should love travelling, is flexible and keen to absorb different cultures and experiences.
